HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1949

Way back in 1937 we see seven tiny tots on their way to school. Yes, it's Dolores, Norine, and Esther. Look! here comes Herby, Junior, Joe and Dean too. It's their first day at the Olde Irrigon Schoole.

These seven did well and in 1941, Jim Fraser of Juliaetta, Idaho and Gene Mulkey of Portland, Oregon, added some new life to our class. Coming from Arlington, Oregon in 1942, Don Adams decided he might as well get in this merry little group. Dick Smith was also watching the progress of the class and came from Hermiston to join us in 1943.

From here they made it through Freshman initiation in 1945 and began High School life in earnest. That year, Alfred Holden joined the class, coming from Hermiston.

Norma Keith came to us from Rainier, Oregon in our Sophomore year and fitted right in with the old timers.

Dianne Phaneuf joined us late in the first semester of our Senior year. She came from Sun Valley, California.

So now leaving Irrigon High with all of its joys and heartaches is the class of 1949.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1949 do will and bequeath:

To the Juniors- our ability to get out of class and make good grades.

To the Eighth Grade- four happy and prosperous years in high school.

To the Teachers- the relief of having us leave.

"Hillbilly Courtship"

By Austin Goetz

Luke Stilsby	In love with the mountain flower	Herby Rand
Emmy Peppin	A flower of the Ozarks	Dolores Browning
Ma Peppin	The mother of the flower	Norine Hinkley
Lulu Triffet	Radio hillbilly	Norma Keith
Seedie Triffet	Radio hillbilly	Esther Warner
Wash Jeddo	A mountain nitwit	Dick Smith
Sol Silverstein	A Hebrew manager	Alfred Holden
Louis Cattaro	A temperamental Italian	Junior Grim
Pappy Stilsby	A feudist of the old school	Don Adams
Bridget O'Flannigan ...	A wild Irish rose	Beth Warner
Reverend Boswell	The preacher-man	Norman Simmons

The Widow Peppin and deaf old Pappy Stilsby have sworn to shoot each other on sight as their mountain feud rages verbally. To make matters worse, Pappy's son, Luke, and Ma Peppin's daughter, Emmy, are in love with each other. The two old feudists have been planning second matrimonial ventures, and each has secretly engaged Wash Jeddo, the half-witted village scribe, to write to a matrimonial bureau for a mate. Wash has enclosed Emmy's picture in Ma's letter and Luke's in Pappy's signing their respective names instead of Ma's and Pappy's. Meanwhile, the mountain is all agog over the homecoming of the Triffet girls, Radio's newest hillbilly sensation, who bring their manager, Sol Silverstein, with them in quest of more hillbilly entertainers. When Sol attempts to sign Ma on the dotted line, she mistakes him for an answer to her letter and jumps at the chance. Complications set in as one of the Triffet sisters tries to vamp Luke and a pair of wildcats in the shape of a wild Irish rose and a temperamental Italian lad arrive from the matrimonial bureau to claim their mates. Luke and Emmy are dumfounded as Hog Mountain is transformed into an active volcano of riotous courtship. In the midst of the turmoil, Pappy comes to settle his score with Ma and is captured by the wild Irish rose in her wildest moment.
